Rural Methodist Work

The Rural Methodist Work is an institution that has been working with the Mapuche People since 1946

The object is to give the Mapuche families a better quality of life and to help them leave the poverty and social marginalization in which they live.

They are assisted through the “community and family development program”, with the purpose of helping them to develop skills in different areas.

We have started a program with seven groups of Mapuche Women from different locations to train them in skills so they will be able to sell some products and raise money to help the family budget.

To further assist those who need it most, we ask that their donations are to forward the following numbers:
