

Engaged Opportunity

Descriptions

Habitat For Humanity

On Saturday, April 23 you have the opportunity to volunteer with Habitat for Humanity. This opportunity will consist of helping H4H finish one other current builds. After registering, Jeremiah Wilson will contact you to get you registered through H4H. Romel Gibson, from H4H, will then contact you will site/build specific information!

Physical Requirements: Be able to work, move, lift, bend, and do general construction or painting work all day.

Community Soup Bowl

On Sunday, April 24 you have the opportunity to volunteer with the Community Soup Bowl. This opportunity will consist of prepping, cooking, serving the Sunday meal to the Soup Bowl clients, and clean up afterwards. This opportunity will runner a little longer than the others. You will go directly to the Soup Bowl (1711 23rd Ave) by 9 AM and you will end around 1:30 PM.

Physical Requirements: Be able to stand for long periods of time.

Child Care will be available at the church if needed. Please let Jeremiah Wilson (jeremiah@fumct.org) if you need child care!

Love INC

On Sunday, April 24 you have the opportunity to volunteer with Love INC. This opportunity consists of helping Love INC in their donation center. Love INC serves as a resource center to families and individuals in need. One of their programs is the Resale Boutique. You will be able to help them sort and organize their many donations.

PARA Park clean up

On Sunday, April 24 you have the opportunity to volunteer by cleaning up PARA parks. Our city parks are in constant need of trash pick up. Locations are To Be Determined. You will be notified before April 24.

Physical Requirements: Be able to walk and bend over for prolonged periods of time. This opportunity is outside.

West Alabama Food Bank

On Sunday, April 24 you will have the opportunity to volunteer by packing bags to be taken to many of the local organizations we support. Similar to the Fall WNA alive kick off event, we will meet in the CAC and pack bags that will give much needed supplies to those in our community.

Sanctuary Beautification

On Sunday, April 24 you have the opportunity to volunteer by improving our church grounds. There will be various job assignments that day lead by Josh Davis.

Physical Requirements: Be able to bend over, lift, kneel. Potential outside work may be available.

FirstKids

On Sunday, April 24 your children will have the opportunity to write letters to our local teachers. Of course, you can sign your child up for the opportunity you are serving with. However, we also want to provide an opportunity to our FirstKids to serve teachers in Tuscaloosa City Schools.

FOOMACK(and families)

On Sunday, April 24 FOOMACK and others have the opportunity to serve our local city schools. Stephen Stroud has lined up several opportunities for the youth. These include improving a city school's teachers lounge as well as doing some much needed maintenance of outside infrastructure.

Physical Requirements: Be able to bend, lift, kneel, work outside.

Shuttle Driver

On Sunday, April 24 you have the opportunity to serve by being a shuttle driver. With so many Engage options throughout the city, we need drivers to drive our vans. This will allow people to car pool and not have to use their own gas.

Physical Requirements: Be able to sit and drive our church vans. No special license is required. However, you must be on the Church's insurance. If you wish this option, we will coordinate with Josh Davis.
